Private Die Proprietary Models, Essays and Proofs

We are pleased to announce our purchase of the major portion of the Morton Dean Joyce collection of these fascinating issues. Included are original models and die proofs with approval signatures of Internal Revenue officials, regular and trial color die proofs, and plate proofs. The collection originated in the archives of Butler and Carpenter, engraver and printer of many of the private die stamps. The collection was obtained from Joseph R. Carpenter by E. B. Sterling in 1890, who later sold it to Hiram Deats. Mr. Joyce acquired the collection from Deats in the 1940s. Most of these items have never before been available for purchase by collectors.

We are currently preparing this collection for sale. Collectors interested in the area are invited to contact either of us at the address or phone below:

ELBERT HUBBARD 1857-69 CALIFORNIA STATE REVENUE COLLECTION TO BE AUCTIONED BY SUPERIOR GALLERIES - NOVEMBER, 1991

The storied Elbert Hubbard California State Revenue Collection, rumored to exist, but virtually unknown to collectors and dealers, will be included in the November 19-22 "Beverly Hills" sale to be held in the Superior Auction Galleries in Beverly Hills.

This magnificent collection, the nucleus of which was formerly owned by Lord, Ward and Combs before being acquired by pioneer revenue dealer Hubbard several decades ago, contains virtually all known listed stamps as well an numerous "unrecorded" items. Areas covered in the collection include Bill of Lading, Exchange Insurance, Marine Insurance, Attorney at Law and Passenger issues in both circular Documentary (including round and square as well as hexagonal and star-cut varieties) and rectangular Revenue (including both round and square varieties) formats. In addition, there are proofs as well as essay issues.

Part I of this collection includes over 375 lots and will be included in the "Beverly Hills" sale. The lots, many of which have never been offered to collectors, represent one of the largest and most complete offerings of these issues ever made. This section will be presented as "Mail Bid Only", so as to offset any disadvantage to those collectors and dealers unable to attend the sale in person.

Further information as well as photocopies of individual lots will be furnished upon request. Catalogs for the sale will be mailed about October 15th to all persons on our mailing list.

The article on Swedish charta sigillata by Stig Kjellander started in the June 1991 issue of Luren noted in the June issue of The American Revenuer has been continued in Luren 1991, 23:No. 8 and 9.

Started in volume 4, number 1, of the Revenue Journal of Great Britain, "Signettes" of Lombardy-Venetia by Erwin Lindenfeld is continued in volume 2, number 1 as is "Postal Aspects of the Revenue Stamps of Palestine" by Arthur Hochheiser. Another major piece in the newest issue is "Russian District Court Issue from the State Printing Works" by Jack Moyes. Shorter articles include "Rhodesia/Zimbabwe School Fees" by Andrew Hall, "British Commonwealth—Update to Barefoot & Hall (4th Ed.," by Donald Duston, "Chile" by Leland Crane and "India States Revenues" by Peter Collins.

Your venerable The American Revenuer continues to be joined by other revenue publications. Aside from

Collectors' and Exhibitors' Forum

An invitation to junior exhibitors has issued by WESTPEX, which will be hosting the 1992 ARA Convention, to compete at their show May 1-3, 1992, at the Cathedral Hill Hotel, Geary and Van Ness Avenues, San Francisco, California. It has been pointed out that the junior fees are $1.00 per frame with a minimum of one and a maximum of five frames.

Gene Kelly's Revenue Philatelist and Erler's Arbeitsgemeinschaft Fiskalmarken, which have been around for a while, The International Revenuer, a quarterly, has made its debut under the editorship of Paulo Barata as the organ of an International Revenue Exchange Center. A $5 bill to Barata at Rua Ricardo Jorge, 9/2/E, 1700 Lisboa, Portugal, will get you started. The first issue I have seen (volume 1, number 2, 1991?) has an interesting article—"Cancellations on the Prostitute Sanitary Inspection Fee Stamps of Rosario de Santa Fe" by Paulo Barata. This alone gave me my five bucks worth. Clive Akerman reports in the Revenue Journal of Great Britain the appearance of Fiscali from Italy but a request for information has gone unanswered. Finally, we note that Leland Crane is issuing a now and then letter on Chilean Revenues and Cinderellas to friends and that Michael Aldrich has started a guarterly house organ. Reve-News containing revenue tidbits and offerings.

Winners in this section will be eligible for the "American Youth Stamp Exhibiting Championships" which are held each year in conjunction with the American Association of Philatelic Exhibitors (AAPE) Annual Convention. Use the prospectus found on the mailing wrapper for this issue.

this column will have to have a selling price of $75 according to their designer Paul Fresco. This is due to much higher than expected printing costs. A sample page in reduced size is illustrated here.

Mounting large items such as documents, taxpaid strips and special tax stamps are often a major problem for revenue stamp exhibitors. AAPE recently held their annual convention at Omaha where your editor was in attendance. At AAPE's exhibiting seminar advice was solicited on how best to handle these oversized pieces from the highly experienced exhibitors in attendance. Among the suggestions were to first contact the exhibit chair or committee where you wish to exhibit; most will allow oversized pages to accommodate large items. It is suggested that your oversized pages be in multiples of standard page sizes, i.e.: the size of two, three or four 8.5 x 11 inch pages. Care must be taken to insure that these multiple size pages will fit into the frames but since most U.S. shows now use the 16 page aluminum frames there should not have to be much switching between shows.

It was further suggested that any oversized pages be shipped separately from the regular size pages or better, hand deliver the exhibit to the show. When hand delivering the pages are easily carried in an artist's portfolio which are widely available in a variety of sizes. A further advantage of hand delivering is that in most instances the owner can assist in mounting the exhibit or at least talk with those who will be doing

Recently owners of pleasure boats in many parts of the United States received the news that they were subject to a new "Recreational Vessel Fee" (RVF) starting July 31, 1991.

These new fees are in varying amounts depending on the length of the vessel affected.

Payment of the fee is evidenced by the issuance of a pair of decals to be affixed to the watercraft.

Often, new taxes (or fees, as they have been styled in recent years) are not new at all but are revived taxes from years before. The new RVF is only the latest in a series of taxes on recreational boaters. The history of these taxes can be traced to the Civil War.

On August 1, 1862, owners of yachts and other pleasure boats were taxed on their ownership of the watercraft under the act of July 1, 1862¹. The following year, the law was amended to provide that the tax be paid annually². These taxes were on yachts, pleasure or racing boats, by sail or steam, as measured by custom-house measurement as follows:

UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE.

ANNUAL TAXES, 1866.

By the eleventh section of the act of June 30, 1864, it is made the duty of any person made liable to sonual tax, on or before the first Monday of May in each year, to make a list or return to the assistant assessor of the district where located, of the articles charged with special duty or tax, including income and articles in Schedule A.

Every person failing to make such return by the day specified will be hable to be assessed by the assistant assessor according to the best information which he can obtain; and in such case the assistant assessor will add twenty-five per cent to the amount of the tax.

In case any person shall deliver to an assessor any false or fundulant list or statement, with intent to defeat or evade the valuation or summation required by law, the assistant assessor will add one hundred per cent. to such duty; and in such case the list will be made out by the assessor resistant assessor, and from the valuation and enumeration so made there can be no appeal.

The assessment list, when completed, will be returned to the collector, who will advertise in some public newspaper published in each county within the district, "If any there be, and by written or printed hodices to be posted up in at least four public place, within each assessment district, that the said duties have become due and payable, and state the time and place within asid county at which he will attend to receive the same;" and to any anu uppid after the thirticth day of June, and for ten days after demand, there will be an addition of ten per cent, as a penalty for auch neglect.

Guardians and trustees, whether such trustees are so by virtue of their office as executor, administrator, or other fiduciary capacity, are required to make returns of the income belonging to minors, or other persons for whom they act as guardians or trustees, and the income tax will be assessed upon the amount returned, after deducting such sums as are excempted by law; provided that the exemption of six hundred dollars shall not be allowed on account of any minor or other beneficiary of a trust except upon the statement of the guardian or trustee male under oath that the minor or beneficiary has no other income from which the said amount of six hundred dollars may be exempted and deducted.

When composes of United States bonds, or gold received for them, are sold within the year, the amount of legal tender currency received therefor should be returned as income under paragraph 9.

When any person has gold, or coupons payable in gold, on hand at the close of the year, its value should be returned at the value of gold at the close of the year.

This value	in New	York was	145.

Where any articles named in Schedule A are owned, possessed, or kept by a partnership, firm, association, or corporation, they must be returned to the assistant assessor of the district in which such partnership, firm, association, or corporation has its office or principal place of business.

When such articles are held by an individual, the return will be made in the district in which he or she resides

Assessors should ask the following Questions:

Had your wife any income last year? Did any minor child of yours receive any salary last year? Have you included in this return the income of your wife, and salary received by minor children? Have you any stocks, and what are they? Have you bought or sold stocks or other property? Have you hey? A stock account? Have you key? any book account? Figure 1 reproduces the first and third pages of the 1866 federal income tax return which shows these taxes as well as other annual assessment taxes for personal property. The receipts for these taxes were often the normal pre-printed receipts used for many other Internal Revenue taxes as shown in Figure 2. These taxes were repealed after the end of the Civil War.

Faced with the need to raise revenue to fund the U.S. efforts in World War I, Congress again turned to taxing pleasure boats and yachts when it passed the War Revenue Act of 1917³. Under that tax law the use yachts, pleasure boats, power boats, motor boats with fixed engines and sailing boats of over 5 ton were subject to an excise tax based on their length as follows:

length not over 50 feet $50 \notin$ for each foot length over 50 feet and not over 100 feet length over 100 feet \$1 for each foot \$2 for each foot

Motor boats of not over five net tons with fixed engines were taxed at the rate of $5. Exempted from the tax were vessels exclusively for trade, national defense or not built according to plans and > specifications approved by the United States Navy. The regulations noted that if the boat was used to carry passengers, the determination as to whether the craft was taxable was dependent on the purpose of the trip, not on whether the owner was seeking a profit. The regulations stated that if the operation was in general commerce such as from New York to Boston, the watercraft was exempt. If the watercraft transported passengers from New York to Coney Island, or to certain fishing grounds, it was taxable⁴. The act did not provide for the use of stamps to evidence payment, and the Treasury Regulations provided that receipts be issued for the taxes⁴. It was required that the receipt be carried on the vessel.

> The Revenue Act of 1918⁵ repealed and recreated the 1917 law so as to impose a special excise tax on the use of yachts, pleasure boats, power boats, and sailing boats of over 5 tons, and to motor boats of not over five tons with fixed engines, not exclusively used for trade, fishing, or national defense, or not built according to plans and specifications approved by the Navy Department. Effective April 26, 1919, the annual tax rates were as follows for watercraft over 5 tons:

length not over 50 feet length over 50 feet and not over 100 feet length over 100 feet

An example of the special tax stamp used to collect this tax is shown in Figure 3. These stamps were improvised so that the tax would reflect the actual length of the boat.

$1 per foot

$4 per foot

$2 foot

Motor boats not over 5 net tons with fixed engines were taxed at the rate of $10 per year. Figure 4 shows an example of the special tax stamp issued to the owner of a motorboat. The Treasury regulations under the 1918 act⁶ stated that motorboats under 5 tons were to be taxed at the rate of $10 per boat regardless of the length. The regulations also provided that motor boats equipped with "Evinrude" or any other types of outboard motors which could be attached and detached were exempt from the tax. Unlike most special taxes, a change of ownership ;of the boat did not result in the need for the new owner to pay a new tax since the tax stamp was transferable with the boat.

The regulations also provided that a card certificate would be issued by Internal Revenue to the owners of boats showing the name or other description of the boat. If the boat was exempt from tax, an exemption card was issued. The use of exemption cards was discontinued in 19237.

The Revenue Act of 1921⁸ repealed the taxes on motor boats of 5 tons or less and altered the taxes vessels over five net tons to apply only if they were over 32 feet in length. The effective date of these amendments was July 1, 1922.

The remaining taxes were repealed by the Revenue Act of 1926⁹ effective June 30, 1926. In their place, however, a new special excise tax was imposed on the use of foreign-built yachts, pleasure boats, power boats, sailing boats, and motor boats with fixed engines over five net tons and over 32 feet in length at the following rates:

length over 32 feet and not over 50 feet $2 for each foot length over 50 feet and not over 100 feet length over 100 feet

$4 for each foot $8 for each foot

These rates were twice the amounts that were previously in force.

The law exempted vessels used exclusively for trade, fishing, or national defense from the tax. The Treasury Regulations relative to foreign built yachts exempted any boat which was owned on January 1, 1926, by a citizen of the United States or by a domestic partnership or corporation and any boat owned by nonresident aliens which were operated only occasionally in American waters¹⁰. The tax was in effect from July 1, 1926, to June 30, 1928, when it was repealed by the Revenue Act of 1928¹¹.

The Revenue Act of 1932¹² reimposed the tax on both U.S. and foreign built boats for two fiscal years starting July 1, 1932, and ending June 30, 1934.

The 1932 tax was imposed on the use of yachts, pleasure boats, power boats, sailing boats, and motor boats with fixed or outboard engines, not used

Length over 200 feet $200 In the event a vessel was foreign built and not owned on January 1, 1926, by a United States citizen or by a domestic partnership or corporation, the tax was double these rates.

The special tax stamps for domestically built watercraft largely followed the format of the stamps used in the 1920s¹³.

With the need for war revenue in anticipation of the beginning of World War II, a tax on recreational watercraft was imposed by the Revenue Act of 1941 commencing February 1, 1942¹³. The tax was imposed on owners using boats at the following annual rates:

Length over 16 feet and
not over 28 feet	$5
Length over 28 feet and
not over 50 feet	$10
Length over 50 feet and

not over 150 feet	$100
Length over 150 feet and
not over 200 feet	$150
Length over 200 feet	$200

These taxes applied to all boats over 16 feet propelled by machinery, sail, or both, measuring over 16 feet and owned by a citizen or resident of the United States. The tax did not apply to boats chiefly used for trade, commercial fishing, by charitable organizations for the assistance of seamen, the sea scouts department of the Boy Scouts of America chiefly for training scouts in seamanship, the federal government or any state or local government.

The penalty for failing to pay the tax was a maximum of $25 or imprisonment for 30 days or both.

The tax was last collected for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1946.

Forty five years later, the Congress again tapped boat owners for revenue. In the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1990, which was approved on November 5, 1990¹⁵, the Secretary of the Transportation Department was directed to establish and collect a fee or charge (hereafter called RVF) from the owners or operators of recreational vessels greater in length than 16 feet with the following maximums being set for the following lengths of vessels:

Over 16 feet but less than 20 feet	$25
Over 20 feet but less than 27 feet	$35
Over 27 feet but less than 40 feet	$50
Over 40 feet	$100

The fee was limited, however, to boats operating on the navigable waters of the United States where the Coast Guard has a presence. Exempted from the fee are public vessels, Coast Guard auxiliary operational facilities authorized to bear a decal and wreath and other vessels the Secretary of Transportation determined was in the public interest to exempt. The "operational facilities" of the Coast Guard Auxiliary are vessels engaged in facilitating safety inspections for watercraft. Figure 6 shows an example of the safety inspection decal affixed to "operational facilities" along with the accompanying wreath.

The fees from the RVF are deposited in the Treasury of the United States and are not segregated for the use of the Coast Guard.

The fee will be collected only during fiscal years 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994 and 1995 when the fee is scheduled to expire. The maximum penalty for failure to pay the fee is a forfeiture of $5,000.

The Secretary of Transportation delegated the responsibility for drafting the regulations by which the RVF is to be collected to the Commandant of the Coast Guard. The final regulations were published on July 1, 1991¹⁶, and became effective on July 31, 1991.

Under the final rules, the fee will be collected from vessels operating on:

- a. The territorial seas of the United States (up to three miles offshore).
- b. Internal navigable waters of the United States subject to tidal influence.
- c. Internal waters of the United States, not subject to tidal influence, from which, during most of the boating season, a 16 foot long powered vessel with a displacement type hull can navigate(including through connecting waters, locks and canals to waters subject to tidal influence).
- d. The Colorado River between Parker Dam and Davis Dam, including Lake Havasu and the Parker Strip located in Arizona and California.
- e. The Lake of the Woods located in Minnesota.
- f. Lake Roosevelt in Washington State.

g. Lake Tahoe located in California and Nevada. Exempted from the fee are foreign vessels in U.S. waters for less than 30 days of each year, unpowered boats, vessel tenders, public safety government agencies and vessels owned or operated exclusively by the Boy Scouts and similar organizations chiefly to train youths in boating. The amount of the fee was left to the discretion of the Coast Guard up to a specified maximum. The Coast Guard imposed the maximum fee allowed as the fee for each of the different lengths of watercraft.

The Coast Guard regulations adopted the use of decals to evidence payment of the RVF¹⁶. The method of identifying compliant vessels has also been influenced by history.

Since 1958, the Coast Guard has been responsible for implementing the Federal Boating Act of 195817 and its successor law, the Federal Boat Safety Act of 1971¹⁸. Under these acts, and the regulations thereunder¹⁹, each state and territory, except Alaska, requires boats to be registered with the state or territory which, in turn, assigns a registration number. In Alaska, this responsibility is carried out by the Coast Guard. Most, if not all, jurisdictions, including the Coast Guard acting in Alaska, issue decals to show that the vessel's registration is current, By Coast Guard rule, each jurisdiction requires these validation decals to be about 3 inches square and displayed within 6 inches of the boat number. Coast Guard regulations also require that the decals indicate the year of their expiration by alternating the colors blue, international orange, green and red.

Under the RVF regulations, the RVF fee may be paid in person, by mail or by telephone with a charge card. After the fee has been paid, the payer receives a pair of decals which are required to be affixed within 6 inches of the boat's state or Coast Guard registration number or where the number would appear if the boat was required to be numbered. The RVF decals expire at the end of each calendar year. They will be issued in the same color rotation sequence as boat registration decals. As a result, they will have the following colors:

1992	red
1993	blue
1994	international orange
1995	green

The regulations also call for the issuance of a permanent decal for exempt watercraft. Since the RVF expires in 1995, these exemption decals will be green.

Figure 7 shows examples of the decals which will be used for the four denominated decals. The letters correspond to the following fees:

A	$25
В	$35
С	$50
D	$100

It will be interesting to see if the user fee will be repealed or otherwise modified before it expires in 1995. The past history of the taxes on recreational boats suggests it will.

Use of Civil War Stamps for Spanish-American War Taxes

OFFICE OF (15.) g. WELLS, FARGO & CO'S EXPRESS. Thanges the $ 100 - hipped by State Jus. a. Sallie

by Michael Mahler, ARA

The item shown in Figure 1 was found in a small collection of express company documents. It is a pale yellow sheet with violet pictorial logo of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express printed at top, and handwritten text as follows: "San Andreas July 28th 1898 Rec'd of F. J. Salinsky — one 55/100 Dollars — Express charges on $750.00 shipped by the Hibernia Bank, San Francisco, July 23rd 1898. C. M Whitlock Agt." Appended beneath is the notation "Estate Jas. A. Gallagher, Deceased," and at bottom is a 5¢ Express revenue stamp of the Civil War era with manuscript cancel "J. A. [next letter unclear] Jul 24 1898."

I was quite prepared to accept this usage as genuine, but for the July 24 date. After all, the documentary taxes occasioned by the Spanish-American War, which had gone into effect only on July 1, did include a tax on express receipts, and it is plausible that the new stamps would not have been available yet in a smaller town like San Andreas (Lippincott's 1913 gazetter gives its population as 650). True, the tax on express receipts was only 1¢, and technically would have applied only to a receipt issued when the goods were received for transmission in San Francisco-but neither of these objections argue convincingly against the genuineness of this usage. In the first case, the 5¢ stamp was presumably the only one available. In the second, some uncertainty as to the fine points of the new law is to have been expected, especially in a rural agency. It is worth noting that the law did specify a $50 penalty for each express receipt issued without a stamp, when a stamp was required, and this presumably motivated agents to error on the side of caution. Finally, one simply does not expect to encounter stamped documents forged to deceive collectors, mainly because the financial incentive for such skullduggery has historically been absent.

There is that July 24 date, though. Why not the 28th? A close look at the cancel provides a surprising and satisfactory answer. The 1898 date has been written over an earlier one., which appears to be "Dec 21 1864." All of this earlier date is unmistakable, with the exception of the second digit of the day, which is probably "1." Perhaps the "4" of "24" was written over a "1" because it best camouflaged the earlier date. Interestingly, the initials of the earlier cancel have been left unaltered.

It is an enjoyable coincidence that on an express receipt for which the express charge was $1.55, a 5ϕ Express stamp was precisely what had been called for by the original Civil War tax schedule of 1862!

Assuming this usage to be genuine, a little thought shows that the reuse of the stamp should not have been a surprise, for the chances are minuscule that an unused 5¢ Civil War stamp would have been on hand in 1898. Consider, though, the document shown in Figure 2. It is a surety bond of notary J. W. Brown executed June 8, 1900, in Polk County [Des Moines], Iowa, stamped with a 25¢ rouletted Battleship of 1898 and a 25¢ Entry of Goods of the Civil War era. This piece came from a long-time Iowa collection, and has been in collector hands for at least forty years. I have no reason to suspect it is not genuine. Fifty cents was the correct tax on a notary's bond as specified by the 1898 schedule, and both stamps are tied by manuscript cancels "June 8th 1900 J.W.B." in a hand matching that on the document itself. The 25¢ Entry of Goods shows no trace of a previous cancel, and appears quite shopworn, with four creases acquired before it was affixed, light uniform soiling, and shortening of the perforations. One can readily believe it spent a quarter century in a busy drawer or wallet before finding its way onto this bond. If the stamp had indeed never been used previously, this raises the interesting question of whether its usage in 1900 was legal. After a careful reading of the Act of June 13, 1898, which established the Spanish-American War documentary taxes and treats them in great detail, it seems to me that in every critical passage the letter of the law would have been satisfied by such a usage. Tax questions of this period which went beyond the letter of the law have been conveniently collected in a volume of Treasury Decisions, and the definitive answer may be there. If so, I am content to leave the search to specialists in Spanish-American War fiscal history. It would be a surprise, though, it the usage of Civil War stamps occurred often enough to catch the attention of the government, or to elicit a ruling.

The piece de resistance in this small subfield of fiscal history must certainly be the item shown in Figure 3. It is a certificate for fifty shares of stock in the Eagle Lock Co. of Terryville, Connecticut, dated July 2, 1898, the day after the Spanish-American War taxes took effect, and bears a First Issue 10¢ Inland Exchange, Second Issue 10¢ and a strip of three of the 1898 2¢ "I.R." overprint. I have seen only a photocopy of this piece. It shows clearly that the Second Issue 10¢ is canceled by a handstamp reading "E.L.Co.JUL 2 1898," and that the 10¢ Inland Exchange also has a handstamp cancel, presumably the same one. Curiously, the 2¢ stamps appear to be uncanceled.

We think of the Spanish-American War era and the Civil War era as radically different times, and justifiably so. By 1898 slavery was a memory, the West had been closed and much of the country industrialized, automobiles had appeared and the Wright brothers' flight was just around the corner. Only 33 years had elapsed, though, since the end of the Civil War, and more to the point of this article, the Civil War stamp taxes had long outlasted the war itself. A broad range of documentary taxes had persisted until 1872, and the stamp taxes on bank checks and proprietary articles had not been repealed until 1883. Perhaps we should not be surprised to see occasional examples of Civil War era stamps on Spanish-American War era documents. The usage of First Issue stamps, though, seems to me quite extraordinary.

- FOREIGN BILL—The 1874 issue exists watermarked both narrow and wide CA. The surcharged stamps are all with narrow CA. The First of Exchange stamps of 1874 (with narrow CA watermark) and the surcharged issues, all exist with sheet margin (straight edge), on the right side.
- The issues of 1894 are all with wide CA watermark. Watermark varieties: Only one stamp (QV number 24I) has been seen with inverted watermark, and only one stamp KE number 81II) has been seen with the sideways watermarked reversed.

- JUDICIAL—The first issue exists with both narrow and wide watermark. Number 14 is reddish lilac. The local overprint (B series) is in pink to vermilion. The 2c value (numbers 21, 57 and 58) is a dark olive not brown. The brown designation is very confusing. On the variety "wide U" (numbers 20a, 21a), the thick printing of the "U" makes the opening narrower than on the normal overprint. An additional constant variety on this overprint is a shorter "J." The top of the "J" is 0.5 mm below the top of the "U."
- REVENUE—(This listing has been re-numbered in the 4th Edition.) For the 1872 issue, the Crown CC watermark exists upright on number 8 (perforated 12.5); both upright and sidewayyys on number 7; and sideways on number 9. Number 13 is light blue with a purple center. Number 11 probably also has a purple center (?).
- STAMP DUTY—The 2c issue of 1877 is dark olive not brown (numbers 28 and 83). Inverted watermarks have been found on the 5c, 1R and 2R of the third series (numbers 29, 37 and 38). The color of number 44 varies from yellow olive to brownish olive. The 1882 series (numbers 46-60) exist with both narrow and wide CA watermarks. Inverted watermarks have been found on the 25c, 50c and 1R values with narrow CA and the 1R with wide CA. The 5c provisional issue (number 61) is perforated 14, watermarked Crown CC sideways. It is found with watermark reversed.

- Surcharged issues-number 68 is surcharged "Five cents" instead of "5¢" as shown (same as number 65 and 70). The surcharge on number 74 is in two lines with a hyphen (Twenty-five / cents). The color of numbers 82, 91 and 93 varies from yellow olive to brownish olive. The color of number 83 is dark olive. Numbers 84 and 85: The "50" on number 84 is small, thick and with serifs. The "50" on number 85 is larger, thin and without serifs. Both are illustrated in Forbin (1915) but the Forbin illustrations are compressed ("50" and "cents" close together instead of on either side of Queen Victoria's head). The writer cannot determine where the 20 mm and 22 mm dimensions shown in the catalog come from. Inverted watermarks have been found on numbers 64, 65, 73, 75, 76 and 79.
- WAREHOUSE RECEIPT-number 7 exists with a thicker, larger "t" in "Warrant" being 4 mm instead of 3.5 mm high. For numbers 8 to 13, the overprint is horizontal, not the watermark as shown. For numbers 11, 12 and 13 the measurements shown are between the "W"s. All overprints are in the center and are on stamps watermarked with the narrow CA. An additional variety exists of the 2 mm spacing overprint on stamps watermarked wide CA and with the overprint in the center. This is the same as for the King Edward issues. Finally, a variety exists with a poorly printed overprint, 1.5 mm apart, on a stamp with a wide CA. The identifiable characteristic is that the balls of the "r"s are small and are on an arm that sticks straight out; there is almost no serif on the back of the "r." On the normal overprint, the large balls hang straight down from a curved arm.

Cyprus

The numbers 1 to 8, 2B and 3B exist with inverted watermarks. The number 18 (1/10) provisional exists perforated 12.5. Numbers 19-21 exist in two types: Type I—round "C" in "CYPRUS"; the tip of the bust does not touch the circle. Type II—Oval "C" in "CYPRUS"; the tip of the but touches the circle.

1903 issue—The new edition lists numbers 34 and 35 (1 pi and 4.5 pi) watermarked Crown CA. The 2 pi also exists with this watermark.

TURKISHZONE—number 3 should be 15 mil instead of 25 mil (see number 12 that follows). The actual colors according to the stamps in my collection are: 5 mil purple (not orange), 10 mil dark brown, 15 mil dark purple (almost black), 25 mil light brown (tan), 50 mil vermilion, 100 mil yellow green, 250 mil light blue, 500 mil dark green, £1.000 red brown, 3000 mil olive and 5000 mil yellow.

Surcharged values: number 13 is on the 10 mil brown (not black). Add: 1.00 TL on 15 mil dark purple.

Fiji

- First issue: On the only two copies of this issue in my collection (both 12c on 6d), one has a black "D" 5.5 mm high by 5 mm wide, the other has a larger "D" with serifs, 6 mm high by 5.75 mm wide. Has anyone seen the other values?
- 1883 issue—Based on my collection, the following values exist in these perforations: perforated 12.5 all values; perforated 10—1d, 3, 6d, 1/0, 2/0; perforated 11—6d, 1/0, 2/0, 3/0; perforated 10 x 11—1d, 1/0; perforated 12 x 10—1/0; perforated 12 x 11—1/0. This issue exists with a sheet watermark of double lined letters. Four values (1d, 3d, 4/0) have been found with a constant plate scratch, diagonally down across the center, easily visible. It probably exists on most, if not all, values. The scratch has not been seen on the dark brown printing, only on the light printing.

Grenada

- A number of varieties exist on the stamps of the first design, mostly concerning the spacing of the overprints.
- First series (large star watermark)—Normal spacing between the two words of the value is 1.25 to 1.5 mm. The 1d exists with 2.5 mm spacing (12 mm overall length).

Second series-These exist with a sheet watermark.

- Surcharged issues—number 21 (1d on 1.5d) exists with two types of "1." T;ype 1 has a curved serif at the top; Type 2 has a straight serif and a flat top. Number 22 (1d on 2/0) has two spacings for the surcharge. The close vertical spacing (between "d" and "1") has an overall measurement of 1.5 mm, and the wide spacing is 1 mm.
- 1884 series—A variety exists on all values where the "R" of "GRENADA" has a straight leg, sticking out to the right at a 45° angle.
- 1965 Surcharge, number 37—One type has a ball at the top of the "2," the other is wider and without a ball. A write-up on hand indicates a sheet contained 38 copies of one type and 12 copies of the other but did not indicate which is which. Only 35,000 stamps were issued and some of these were sold for postals, although issued to meet a revenue need. A two cent violet and black Queen Elizabeth postal overprinted

"Revenue" at the base is a fake. Jamaica

- JUDICIAL—Number 17 (1/0 black on green) also exists on the sub-variety blue green paper with olive back (Scott 68a, Gibbons 65b).
- 1953 Queen Elizabeth II issue—the perforated 14 issue (actual 13.75) measures 18.5×22.5 mm. The perforated 13 issue is smaller with wide margins and measures 17×20.5 mm. The 8/6 exists in Type A, and the 10/0 and £1 exist in Type B. The watermark on both perforation types is multiple Crown block CA, not script CA.
- 1969 series in new currency—the actual perforation measurement is 14.25 x 14.25. This series also exists perforated 12.5 x 13. The writer has the 5c, 10c, 20c, 40c and 85c values in this perforation. Also, a 10c value exists perforate 13.25 x 13 (nominal perforation 13).
- EMBOSSED ISSUES-Small Design: there are three major colors in this series. First, gray to gray blue, unwatermarked, cancels notes from 1902 to 1914. Second. ultramarine. unwatermarked, cancels noted from 1914 to 1919. The only values seen are 1/0 (H), 2/0 (J), 3/0 (A) and 5/0 (H). The third color, blue, comes in two distinct shades but would all be classified as blue for catalog purposes. Dull blue (light to dark) cancels notes from 1912 to 1931. Bright blue watermarked, cancles noted from 1951 to 1959. Values seen are 1/3 (O), 1/6 (C), 4/ 0(N), 7/6(T) and 10/0(AN). Bright blue watermarked with multiple Crown script CA, cancels noted from 1956 to 1958. Values seen are 2/6 (AE), 5/0 (AF) and 15/0 (Z). The 5/0 is a new design with a crown at the top.
- New Design—unwatermarked, cancels noted from 1943 to 1948. 3d (AD), 6/0 (AS) and 1/0 (AC). All have the crown at the top instead of the center. For the dull blue issue, add the following die numbers: 2/0 (G), 3/0 (L), 5/0 (K) and 6/0 (A).
- AIRPORT TAX—a "TRAVEL TAX RECEIPT" exists, and although this is not an adhesive, it serves as proof of the tax being paid. It measures 81 x 72 mm with black roulettes on two or three sides. It is black on gray card inscribed "Travel Tax Act / TRAVEL TAX RECEIPT / JA $10.00" plus a serial number and "Valid for one departure from Jamaica." My copy has a violet triangular handstamp cancel reading "IMMIGRATION OFFICER / JAMAICA, W. I. / 3 MAR 1983."

Leeward Islands

FEES-(This section has been re-numbered in the 4th Edition.) The Queen Victoria issue numbers 1-5 exist with both narrow and wide watermark CA.

Malta

- Some of the King George issues are listed on both white or yellow paper. It appears that most, if not all, of these issues exist on a white to creme paper and on a more yellowish paper. Others are on a distinctively yellow paper. These include the Applications, Contracts, Registers, Revenue and Stock and Bond issues.
- REVENUE—(This series has been re-numbered in the 4th Edition starting with number 28.) Numbers 1, 2 and 4 have been seen with a double impression of the overprint. Constant varieties of the overprint exist including a broken "R" (right side), and "c" for "e" (broken "e"). Number 19 exists with either a gray center or bistre center. On the new listing number 28 (3d gray and purple), the overprint is in lower case, while on number 22 it is in block letters.

WORKMAN'S COMPENSATION—The stamps are found perforated 14, 12.5, 12.5 x 13.5, 13.5 x 12.5 and 13.5 x 14.

REPUBLIC OF MALTA, EXCISE DUTY-Add: Red on bluish, 46 x 20 mm imperforate with Coat of Arms of the Republic (boat and sun), inscribed "5c / DAZJU" and "5c / EXCISE / DUTY." The border consists of lines of minute lettering "EXCISE DUTY DAZJU" repeated.

Montserrat

Number 1 exists in two distinct shades, bright red (almost pink), and dark rose or plum (almost brown). CA 93117

REVENUE-Add: 1967 decimal currency, black overprint, Type B, on New Zealand arms type without inscribed value. 25c on brown, 50c on green, $1 on magenta, $2 on rose. (Listings per Gerald Abrams, only the $1 has been seen.)

North Borneo

Number 6 exists imperforate on thin paper with gridiron cancel.

Papua

Numbers 1 to 6 are watermarked Crown double line "A" upright. Numbers 7 to 11 are watermarked Crown single line "A" sideways. Number 5 exists with inverted watermark. Number 7 exists without stop after Duty.

Papua—Territory of New Guinea

Numbers 8, 9 and 11 exist perforated 11. The illustration in the catalog shows perforated 10. Number 10 was seen on document dated July 1934. This series comes in two watermarks, multiple Crown "A" upright (1d, 2d and 6d seen), and multiple Crown C OF A upright (2d seen). The February 1990 Hall auction lists "c1926 wmk Mult Crown A, 1d (as B&H 7 but unlisted wmk)" but this is probably one of the two watermarks shown above. CAUTION: the colors on some stamps of this issue run when soaked.
